Chatham County Board of Commissioners Candidates Forum

The League of Women Voters is sponsoring a candidates forum for the candidates running for the Chatham County Board of Commissioners District 1 and District 2 seats. This forum is free and open to the public and is scheduled for Saturday, October 20th from 2:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M. at Central Carolina Community College, Building Two, 764 West Street, Pittsboro, NC. “The League of Women Voters is a non partisan political organization that was founded 92 years ago to encourage informed citizen participation in government,” said Brenda Rogers, Leader of the League of Women Voters of Orange, Durham, and Chatham Counties. “The League encourages all citizens to vote in their national, state and local elections. We hope the citizens of Chatham County will attend this forum to hear their local candidates discuss important issues and to ask questions of their candidates.” Chatham County Commissioner Sally Kost and her challenger, Don Shilesky, are running in District 1. In District 2, County Commissioner Mike Cross is running against Bill Crawford, former 2009 candidate for Pittsboro Mayor.

Bill Willcox, Chatham News reporter, will moderate the forum. The audience will have a chance to ask questions of the candidates at the forum. Also, citizens can post questions prior to the start of the forum on Facebook.com League of Women Voters Orange Durham and Chatham Counties NC.
